

How to get to...

ETP4HPC General Assembly 5th March 2015
Barcelona

Location

Aula Màster in Building A3 of the UPC (Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya) Campus Nord in Barcelona

The exact address is:

Edifici A-3, Campus Nord UPC. Carrer Jordi Girona, nº1-3. 08034 Barcelona

(A3 is on a small internal campus street called: Carrer Santa Maria Cervelló)

Coordinates: 41.388598, 2.112805

This is near the University Library (Biblioteca) on the Campus of UPC. The entrance to the room is in an underpass between the Library and a little square on the other side of Building A3.

It is a 20 min taxi ride from the El Prat airport, near the southern end of the Diagonal (and near the headquarters of BSC). The nearest metro station is L3/Palau Reial.

How to get there

A taxi from El Prat Airport should not take more than 20 min. The fare is around 25 Euros and credit cards are accepted. The meeting location is on the side of the city adjacent to the airport and near one of Barcelona's ring roads (Ronda de Dalt).

If you arrive to T1 (most airlines) you can also take a city shuttle bus. Get off at the first stop (Espanya) and take metro Line 3/Green towards Zona Universitaria. Get off at the second last stop (Palau Reial, one stop after Maria Cristina).

If you arrive to T2 (low-cost airlines), you can also use the city shuttle bus as above (this one leaves from T2). Alternatively, follows the signs for the train station and take a train (any train) to Barcelona Sants Estació. From there, take metro L3/Green to Palau Reial (as explained above).

On arrival

If you arrive by metro to Palau Reial, leave the station taking the right hand side exit. Walk up a hill, away from the Diagonal (the big road) along the wall of a park until you arrive to this point, with a wide asphalt lane ahead. If you arrive by taxi, this is probably where you will get dropped off.

If you stick your head to L, you will see more buildings and Aula Màster is in the one marked below:

Walk up the wide asphalt track, pass the funny-looking BSC building with a strange roof and the creamy colour K2M building on your L. The next long red brick building is building A. Turn L to reach A3 in the middle of it.

Aula M`ster is in the underpass between the Library and a little square in between the third and fourth block of building A.
